

PROBLEM STATEMENT

The high volume of vehicles in combination with multiple access points on Illinois Route 62 obstructs access and vehicle mobility, while increasing the potential for crashes within the project area.

The improvement should consider the natural areas and community character while ultimately working to improve overall safety, reduce congestion, and increase multi-modal access along and across Illinois Route 62.

